THE SECOND COMING OF ANDY.

The epigrammatic utterances of politicians and statesman at the re-election of Andy Johnson to the United States Senate, as gathered and reported by a New York Herald interviewer, are quite readable. Some of them are amusing from their political bearings—past, present and the future. The Republican leaders generally, are decidedly sour over the prospective presence of the erratic statesman from Tennessee. How does Andy's appearance speak for successful reconstruction in Tennessee? Did the news of his success gratify the President? How could it, when these two men hate each other with all the venom possible? Senator Cameron, of Pennsylvania, when asked what he thought of the Tennessee Senator, nervously replied: "Don't press me for an opinion, for, while it is a very great victory for the man, I don't like him and never did, and I opposed his nomination for the Vice-Presidency." Here is another pair of well qualified old-fashioned haters. But how differently Senator Logan looks at the return of the old prodigal. Logan says: "Johnson is just the man we want. I think he will rip things (old Democratic clothing) He is not going to let Thurman be the leader of the Democracy in the Senate." Thurman being the conceded leader and a very prominent candidate for the Presidency, Logan hopes Johnson will kick up a bit of a row by attempting to lead and rule. Senator Parsons, of North Carolina, says Johnson aspires to the Presidency in 1876, and that his irrepressible ambition will not allow him to rest quiet in the Senate. Conceding this to be true we can understand Senator Logan's allusion to "ripping things." Old Zach Chandler, of Michigan, who has just been laid on the fence as a remedy for the dry rot, gathers some consolation from the fact that he escapes the pleasure of Andy's Senatorial company. Really, is not "old Bloody-Shorb" putting on frills? Senator Gordon, of Georgia, by his response, is understood to be of divided mind as to the "second-coming" of the tailor statesman. He says: "It will depend upon what whim Mr. Johnson takes. His election may do a great deal of good. He may do the Democratic party a great deal of harm. He is a powerful man. I do not agree with many of my brother Democrats in their apprehensions of him. He can say what he chooses to the other side without fear of their attacks." The Democratic apprehension appears to be that Andy will get in the way of the Presidential succession, and have just power and influence enough to "rip up" the old Democratic Presidential garments. Senator Bayard, of Deleware, thinks his election "a piece of poetic justice," but Mr. Johnson too much of an old fogy to be in political accord with any Senator or any party. The "Johnson-interviewed" generally accord the Senator elect honest intentions, great ability, high political aspirations, and a political course only to be known as developed. We suppose that Johnson will prove the same old "constitutional" exonerator, and that his long speeches will treat of the great achievments that would have crowned his Administration had he not been pinioned by a radical and revolutionary Congress.

THE CELEBRATION.

This is the manner in which the "brevity" man of the San Francisco Alta describes the celebration of the anniversary of the birthday of George Washington, in San Francisco on Monday last:

—Did you go?

Missed it, if you didn't.

It was a gala day. Plenty of excitement. Novel and unique. Blank cartridges. Great crowds. Nobody hurt. More fun!

The bold soger boys.

They were out in great force, and really looked imposing. Martial bearing—and no bulling. A pleasing variety of uniforms. Though how can things be uniform, where there's a variety? Anyway, they looked well, and bore themselves bravely. Horse and foot; batteries, rifles, muskets, swords, bayonets,

And pocket pistols.

The crowd of spectators was large. Sam Brannan was not there. He is a man of peace, and takes no interest in the tented field. Almost everybody else was there. And enjoyed it. One noble form was especially noticeable. On a high-spirited charger. "I saw him but a moment, methinks I see him now, with bomb-shells worked upon his tail, and war upon his brow."

Chief Cockrill.

A few remained in town, to keep things running, and prevent scallawags from capturing the place in the absence of the Army. Among them Captain Kentzel. His feather weight floated about the wharves, as usual, dismaying evil doers.

Solid man!

The women also rallied on the martial plain in force, full of ribbons, enthusiasm, and hairpinness. The women always did like brass buttons. All want to be Grand Duchesses, and love the military.

Who wouldn't be a soldier?

There were many brilliant officers in the field. General Orders was very numerous. Several other Generals known to fame. The whole under the review of Major General Thompson. Assisted by Brigadier General Coey, P. M.

"Wich is Postmaster."

As for Colonels, and Majors, and Captains, and things, nobody knows how many there were.

The movements were well executed. Some of the boys planted the signals where they were of signal service. Others spread themselves out over the field like thin molasses over a big griddle-cake. Skirmishers. Most of 'em had skirmished before. It came easy to 'em.

Bottle scared veterans.

Old Glory floated proudly. The Stars and Stripes can't be equalled for beauty. They beat the world.

The shock of battle was terrific. The serried columns surged up against each other like mighty billows Till they got to close quarters. Then they quit surging, and Took a rest.

The First Regiment was super. Marched well and looked well. No foolishness. Biz is biz. Settled down to their work like Wisconsin veterans. "Stood like a stone wall before the enemy."

The Second came up like one of Moltke's regiments. Went through the maneuver like clock-work, swinging around like a gate on a hinge. Solid and steady and equal to any emergency. Looked as if they had Fought mit Signel.

The Third was there itself. They charged as bravely as if they really meant business. And looked as if they might scoop the field. Such is the spirit of the Tipperary boys.

More power to 'em!

The battle raged. But they didn't hurt each other. Too well trained for that. "Marched up the hill, and then marched down again." Aides flying around like mad. Horses snorting. Officers shouting. Troops perspiring. Crowd cheering. Ladies deeply interested.

It was an inspiring sight.

Nothing like it seen here before. Most encouraging to our hopes of a fine Army in the future. We must encourage the malitia. What should we do without them on the national holidays? They furnish a rallying point for enthusiasm.

Darn the expense!

Kalakaua ought to have been there. His Maj. would have enjoyed it. He has an eye for the picturesque, and a soul that is stirred to its profoundest depths by a brass band. He will be sorry he didn't wait. So will Dominis and Kapena.

In statu quo ante bellum.

It is an awful thing to look upon a field of battle after the fury and din have died away.

But there are fellows equal to the emergency. They pranced around on horseback. For once in their lives. Reporters. An oh! how wise they tried to look.

There was no masked battery. But there will be a masked ball to night. Eureka! You needn't say all this is irrelevant.

What do you know about war?

N. B.

Which is Newton Booth? Our honored Governor. He enjoyed it. He will lecture on Charles James Fox to-morrow night. He has studied the ways of that old Fox. And he is up in 'em. If you don't believe it, ask old Pick. He may not give a decided opinion, but will tell you "what is said."

Revenons.

When the cruel war was over, the boys in blue and red and gray and motley came home. Tired and hungry, but slopping over with glory and the satisfaction of having done their duty.

We are proud of our citizen soldiery. They do us honor; let us honor them. 'Sposin', now, there was an invasion, or an insurrection, or a religious massacre, or a riot of some kind. To whom would we look for safety? To the National Guard, of course.

Who's afraid?

While we have these noble fellows to skirmish, and rally, and charge bayonets for us. Encourage the military. Hurrah for the Army! Three cheers for the Flag! Ever the stars above look down on its stars below in this high old town.

This is the best report of the Grand Review you need look for in this column. It may not be a good one. How could it? We know nothing about the review. We didn't see it. We haven't even seen a solitary soldier, all day. We have simply given you

The grand gaff.

Exciting Times in the French Assembly.

PARIS, Feb. 24.

In the Assembly yesterday Clause 5 of the Senatorial Bill relating to the appointment of 75 Senators by Assembly was not finally adopted. De Lapit, Conservative Liberal, moved an amendment providing that these members be selected from a double list of names presented by the President of the Republica. The clause, with the proposed amendment, was referred to a Committee of Thirty for consideration, and Riouf Duval who conducted the debate on behalf of the Bonapartists continued throughout the proceedings to make exceedingly liberal amendments with the hope of detaching the left from the two centres and defeating the bill, but the coalition stood firm and all motions were rejected by overwhelming majorities. The Bonapartists accused the members of the left of abandoning their principles and forsaking nation sovereignty. As a final desperate effort to defeat the bill they moved an amendment providing that it cannot become a law until ratified by universal suffrage. They declared if the bill was thus ratified they would submit. It was the duty of the left, they said, to vote for this amendment if they really wished to control affairs of the State. Eight millions voters could not without their consent be placed in the hands of a body elected as this bill contemplated. The amendment was lost, receiving only the votes of the Bonapartists.

Attempted Murder—Skull Fractured.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.

About 10 A. M. yesterday Louis Hanson, a resident of this city, attempted to kill his wife at the house of Mr. Giescher, in Oakland. The parties were married about a year ago in Petaluma and moved to this city. Hanson became addicted to drink so bad that his wife was compelled to leave him and take refuge with Mrs. Giescher. Yesterday Hanson called at Giescher's for the ostensible purpose of having his wife go with him to a lawyer's office to draw up divorce papers. As the came out of the house Hanson fired two shots at his wife, both taking effect. He then attempted to shoot himself but the cap missed fire. He then ran to Broadway wharf, pursued by the police and an excited crowd, and threw himself into the water, but was rescued by some stevedores near by and taken to the City Prison. Mrs. Hanson's wounds are not fatal. Hanson will have a preliminary examination as soon as his wife is able to appear in court.

Yesterday morning on a sand pile on Sansome street, near California, a Chinaman was found insensible. He had been struck on the head with some instrument, fracturing his skull. He was removed to the Chinese hospital and will probadly die. The locality where he was found is the same where a Chinaman was bowstringed to death a few weeks ago.

The Gambling Bill.

CARSON, Feb. 24.

In the Assembly to day the bill to suppress gambling was taken up During the debate McDonnell, of Storey county, stated he had heard it currently reported that $100,000 had been used to defeat the bill; $15,000 had been paid to the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, $5,000 each to the members from Storey county; the balance to eastern members. Wren, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, replied repelling the charge and calling for an investigation. After further debate the vote was taken and the bill rejected, 29 to 17. Notice of reconsideration was given.

Mountain Meadow Massacre—Gov. Axtell—Snowstorm—Fire.

SALT LAKE, Feb. 24.

This morning Geo. C. Bates, a lawyer of the firm of Sutherland & Bates, publishes a card saying he has been served with an order from the Second District Court of Judge Boreman, Beaver, Utah, to appear before him on the first Monday in April and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt and disbarred, the offense, as stated, being that eight persons indicted for murder at the Mountain Meadow Massacre had employed the firm which had endeavored to procure an order from the Judge accepting bail in the amount of $10,000 each, the parties having fled beyond the jurisdiction of the Court and offering to appear for trial if no arrests would be made.

Governor Axtell is traveling in the northern portion of the Territory.

There has been quite a severe snowstorm in this vicinity during the past two days.

The Beardsley House, at Ogden, is reported to be on fire this evening.

MRS. FANNY STENHOUSE,
OF SALT LAKE CITY,
Will Deliver her Thrilling Lecture on
"THE MOUNTAIN MEADOWS MASSACRE."
At The Reno Theater,
—ON—
THURSDAY EVENING, FEB. 26th.
ADMISSION - - - FIFTY CENTS.
☞ Lecture commences at 8 o'clock.

DR. A. B. SPINNEY,

WELL KNOWN throughout the country as a Pathologist and Physiologist whose successful treatment of certain physical disabilities and functional derangements deservedly entitled him to the familiar recognition of the GREAT SPECIALIST, would respectfully inform the citizens of Virginia City, Nevada, and vicinity that he can be consulted at No. 188 South C street, Virginia, seven doors north of the French Drug Store, at his office, thus giving invalids an opportunity of availing themselves, through his professional agency, of such constitutional antoyances and ailments as he claims to compass and to cure. Without entering into biographical details it is sufficient to simply promulgate the fact that DR. SPINNEY'S earliest reputation may be traced back to his inauguration and conduct of the Montreal (Canada East) Medical Institute. The regime of the English Pharmaceutical Colleges is gauged by an elevated standard. An extended experience and an assiduous study of the varied phases of disease enables him to guarantee assurance of success in the eradication of the multiform chronic affections incident to both sexes such as Nervous Debility, Exhausted Vitality, Youthful Excesses, Marriage Impediments, Chronic and Genital Affections.

TO THE LADIES.

DR. SPINNEY, while naturally impressed with the delicacy of the subject, feels no hesitancy in assuring them that, in conjunction with a competent knowledge of their various sufferings such as Nervousness, Neuralgia, Spinal Weakness, Loss of Appetite, Lassitude, Prolapsus Uteri, Retroversions or Displacement of the Womb, Vaginal Irregularities, Leucorrhœa, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, and the many petty, irritating distractions that almost invariably have their origin in the uterine region, afford them immediate relief.

YOUNG MEN.

Who may be suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit five hundred dollars for every case of seminal weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure. He would, therefore, say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice that you are treading upon dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedy for your complaint. You may be in the first stage—remember you are approaching the last. If you are bordering upon the last, and are suffering some or all of its evil effects, remember that if you obstinately persist in procrastination, the time must come when the most faithful physicians can render you no assistance; when the door of hope will be closed against you; when no angel of mercy can bring you relief. In no case has the Doctor failed of success. Then let not despair work its result upon your imagination but avail yourself of the beneficial results of his treatment before your case is beyond the reach of medical skill, or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave.

COME AND BE HEALED.

It matters not what your trouble may be, come and let the Doctor examine your case. It will cost you nothing for consultation, so please call and satisfy yourself whether the Doctor understands your case. If he can cure you he will tell you so; if not, he will say so, for he will not undertake a cure unless he is confident of effecting a cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many of the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for; on examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin and milkish hue, again changing to a dark and turpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

N. B.—Only an interview required in a majority of cases; balance of treatment can be conducted at home without interruption of business. No cases treated without a personal interview and proper examination. Office hours—10 to 1, 2 to 4, and 7 to 8. Consulation Free. Examination and advice, $5.

STATE PRISON APPROPRIATION.

The following is the action of our State Senate on Tuesday on a subject of interest to us all:

The Senate went into Committee of the Whole on the General Appropriation bill. The committee reported progress in the Senate.

Senate Bill No. 69—the General Appropriation bill—being under consideration, Mr. Davenport moved to strike out "Reno" from the bill when it relates to the State Prison. Mr. Cohn stated that the State has no title to the prison grounds, and Mr. Lockwood claims that the best lawyers on the coast claim that the State title is good.

Mr. Varian moved to strike out the State Board of Examiners and insert such board as the law may direct, which means L. Morrill of Dayton, G. W. Chedic of Ormsby and B. B. Norton of Washoe.

Mr. Edwards opposed the amendment.

The amendment was carried, 18 to 5.

Mr. Davenport moved to strike out the word Reno from the bill. Lost.

The roll was called and the bill passed by a vote of 22 to 1.

MRS. STENHOUSE'S book "Tell It All" can be obtained at the door of the hall before or after the lecture. This is a very interesting volume, and plainly exposes the workings and teachings of the Mormon Priesthood. Prices according to binding, $5, $3 50 and $3.

SURGERY.—It is no longer necessary for the afflicted who need surgical aid to go to the "coast," as they have now in Reno one of the most skillful surgeons in the United States. Dr. A. J. Grover has no superior on the Pacific slope as a successful surgeon. He gaurantees the most perfect satisfaction in all cases that are within the reach of surgical skill. Also gives special attention to chronic diseases. *

FOR SALE.—The brick dwelling house of D. A. Bender, on West street, is offered for sale. For particulars apply at the bank.

NEW VARIETY STORE.—Mr. C. J. Brookins has opened a variety store on Virginia street, adjoining J. E. Jones & Co's. bank. He deals in stationery, candy, confectionery, cigars and tobacco, and other useful articles. By close attention to business, and by giving a man his money's worth, he expects to command patronage. Give him a call.

OH no of course not, for Nels. Greenman has a laundry of his own and will do his level best to satisfy his old customers and gobble all new ones in sight. Nels. Greenman, Pedro Laundry. *

NOTICE.—Mr. Nels. Greenman is no longer our authorized agent. Our patrons will govern themselves accordingly. SY LEE & Co. *

LECTURE.—Mrs. Fanny Stenhouse, of Salt Lake City, will deliver her thrilling lecture on "The Mountain Meadow Massacre," at Dyer's Hall, to-morrow evening. Admission fifty cents. All those who are desirous of hearing about the Mormons should attend.

ALIVE.—The rumor that Len Savage had been killed by the Indians in Arizona proves to have been unfounded. A telegram was received from him yesterday from San Bernardino, stating his scalp was still on.

THE late brokerage establishment of J. C. Clowes now resembles a miniature bulletin board. We move that our Constable be thrown out of office—he is the only man in town making any money nowadays.

DISTRICT COURT.—There was no business of particular importance transacted yesterday. Court will remain in session the remainder of the week, and then adjourn for the term.

HY SMITH, of Wells, Fargo & Co. notoriety shed his refulgent rays around here yesterday. A great coon is that same Hy.

DEAD.—We were shown a dispatch from Virginia yesterday forenoon which said that Mrs. Geo. Ferrend had just died.
